Honoring the Mystery By Zdravko Stefanović

With impassioned feeling and succinct insight, Zdravko Stefanović guides his reader's hearts to a deeper and truer place, while simultaneously lifting their minds to experience a higher plain of consciousness. He writes with such wisdom and grace, gently contemplating the mysteries of life, then tenderly soothing the brokenness of loneliness and heartbreak. Everything that Stefanović writes are messages we have searched for, messages we have longed to hear, messages to be pressed to our souls and cherished. He opens the door to the heart, and invites everyone in. Once there, we feel connected to each other and to our shared quest to make sense of this life. We feel connected, and we feel inspired to take the inquiry to the next level. A luminous collection of poems and affirmations that both comfort and awaken. A wonderful book to read and share with others.

About the Author:

A very popular social media poet, Zdravko Stefanović has devoted much of his life to exploring the mysteries that lie within us. Growing up in Sweden, he spent considerable time in nature, honing his perceptions and connecting with a deeper understanding of our universal experience. Nature became an embrace force to reckon with, to befriend, to understand, and to communicate with. As a result, his writing has an uncanny ability to touch the timely and the timeless, inviting the reader to connect deeply with the moment, while simultaneously contemplating questions of deeper meaning. Honoring the Mystery is his first published collection.

Stefanović pulls you in with comforting, profound words seemingly spoken by the universe itself. As a published author myself, I found it an honor to read pages laced with not only life lessons, but a sense of magic, as well. In a world full of souls in need of hope, Honoring the Mystery provides just that, while simultaneously delivering a strong message of truth in self discovery. Zdravko Stefanović has a voice that needs to be heard for generations to come.”

–ERIN VAN VUREN, author of Brain Food for Big Kids, renowned poet

"Zdravko Stefanović has always managed to connect to his readers to a spiritual level. His writing is beautifully poetic and has a life enhancing impact on me and my work. Whenever I am shooting on the mountains and am in trouble, something from his poetry pops up in my mind and it gives me some kind of courage to overcome the harsh climatic conditions. Honoured to have read this beautiful book before it was published.

– FAYEEM AVZL, Award-winning Independent filmmaker

“I’ve known Zdravko for a good few years now. I always liked him. I liked him because he is honest in his desire to push and brave in his methodology. These words of his are an honest insight into the man himself. An older soul sitting behind young eyes. A traveler with a profound respect for his roots. Here he continues to ask questions. Probing and prodding all that lives and dies around him from the physical to the spiritual world. I admire those that stay the course in their beliefs. The road is still long at such an age but all I can say is rock on brother. Rock on. Peace.”
